

STRATOS JET CHARTERS NOW RATED WITH “STRONG” FINANCIAL RANKING BY DUN & BRADSTREET

Having confidence in those you do business with is always a vital component of the decisions you make every day. And as you may have read in previous Stratos Jet Charter communications, we feel that the financial history and standing of the charter company that you choose to do business with matters, both in terms of your assurances that you will receive what you have paid for, and in the overall performance and quality of services that relate to your travel experience. Which is why we are proud to announce that Stratos Jet Charters has recently received the rating of STRONG regarding the financial condition of our company.

Dun & Bradstreet (NYSE: DNB) is the world's leading source of commercial information and insight on businesses that is the foundation that their customers rely on to make critical business decision. D&B is the premier provider of US and international business credit information and credit reports.

Stratos Jet Charters received the best possible Financial Stress Class score of 1, indicating the lowest risk of “severe financial stress over the next 12 months.” Firms with this classification currently have a failure rate of 1.2%, which is lower than the average of businesses in D&B's database. These results also place Stratos Jet Charters above the national average for the Jet Charter Industry, the South Atlantic Region, within our Employee Range and for Number of Years in Business by significant margins.

Stratos Jet Charters also received the best possible Credit Score Class, once again with a score of 1. This places Stratos at the lowest possible risk of “payment delinquency over the next 12 months.” Once again, Stratos beat the national average scores within the Jet Charter Industry, the South Atlantic Region, within our Employee Range and Number of Years in Business by large margins.

The D&B PAYDEX score is a unique, dollar weighted indicator of payment performance based on payment experiences as reported to D&B independently by trade references of Stratos Jet Charters. Among the 58 vendors reporting to the D&B file, Stratos paid within credit terms in 100% of all cases. The industry median PAYDEX score within this category is 70; Stratos Jet Charters received a score of 80. This places Stratos above the 75th percentile in this category.
